MEAD HIGH SCHOOL

Pine Burr 1963

DEDICATION

Mrs. Bayley

The 1963 Pine Burr Staff wishes to pay homage to our "front office mom", Mrs. Marie Bayley, who has the patience of a saint, the nerves of a riveter, the efficiency of an expert and the soul of a comedienne. She rings the bells, "punches our card", and reminds our boss. Yes, she gives ballast, dignity and refinement to our school. She is a daily symbol of the virtues Mead High School students aspire to attain.

Traverse with us the halls of Mead
And view again familiar scenes,
You and I at work and play
Each striving for a better way.

FACULTY

District Administration

Congratulations to the editor of the Pine Burr for another excellent yearbook.

I wish to express my sincere best wishes to the members of the graduating class of 1963. May you have success and happiness in your future activities.

I would like to see many of you enroll at college or secure technical or vocational education.

It is imperative in this age of automation that students be prepared in some profession or skilled occupation. The era of common labor is about completed.

I hope many of you will remember your years at Mead as happy and useful ones.

You had excellent teaching and counseling. Please use this training to become worthwhile citizens of our great country.

James C. Constable

High School Administration

Why is Mead Senior High the school that it is? Analyze the question and its answer. It is because the student body wants their school to be a great school. Students are proud of their achievement, their reputation, and their past traditions. Mead Senior High will continue to grow in stature. I am proud to be associated with this student body and to join with it in the work to make this great school even better.

Five started for the team,
the four S's and Leyde;
Darrell was our leader.

During the third quarter of play,
he died in his basketball uniform,
playing the game he loved.

As the rules go,
five will start the next game,
but Leyde will be there as the sixth.

Lilac Festival

As the annual Spokane Lilac Festival drew near, the 1963 committee chose five charming and attractive candidates to vie for the title of Mead's Lilac Princess. These girls were Marianne Morgen, Cheryl Galbreath, Ann Cunningham, Bev Sicilia and Jerene Hales.

Ann Cunningham was elected to represent Mead High Scholl. As our princess Ann is the embodiment of all those qualities that make up a true queen: personality, attractiveness, scholastic achievement, leadership, and citizenship. Because of Ann's vivacity, wit, and charm, Mead was represented by not only a lovely princess, but also by a girl we will always remember as a queen.

Girls' and Boys' State

Annually four outstanding students are selected to represent Mead Senior High School at student training conferences held at Pacific Lutheran University and Central State College of Education. The basis for selection is demonstrated ability in the areas of scholastics, leadership, and citizenship. This honor bestowed on Ann Cunningham, Jerene Hales, Gary Dinwoodie, and Allan Hardan also reflects glory upon our school.

DARREL LEYDE AWARD
Presented to Gary Smith
By Mr. Meyers and Mrs. Leyde
Given by Kiwanis

We are all just moments in time. However, Darrel Leyde will forever penetrate the halls of Mead. His laughter, easy smile, and sauntering gait will forever resound through the building, although Darrel himself is gone.

In our memory of Darrel Leyde - a boy who was given life, struggled to keep it, but tragically succumbed to fate. Although Darrel lived a terribly short life, he proved to us, the students of Mead, that it is not the length of time one lives his life, but the manner in which he lives it. For Darrel truly did get a maximum mileage out of everyday of his life. He gave his life to Mead, but we could only give him our friendship and admiration -- a small return for such a fine person.

Mead High School Edition

Dedicated to the students of Mead High School and especially to DARREL LEYDE's teammates
on the basketball squad.

"Now we see through a glass darkly." So wrote the great Apostle of the first Christian century. This means that even 20-20 vision is still very limited vision.

Last Friday evening during the Mead--Deer Park High School basketball game at Deer Park, everyone could see the ten players on the floor, the two referees, the cheer leaders, the two squads and their coaches on their respective benches, and the shouting crowd of rooters cheering their teams to victory!

But hardly anyone was aware of the Unseen but very real Presence standing nearby in the "dim unknown keeping watch over His own." The Great Coach of the Game of Life was watching very closely last Friday evening.

More concerned about the Big Game of Life than the brief "scrimmage" at hand, this short inning of time within Eternity's endless span, the Great Coach of the Ages followed with special interest every move of His invaluable players. For each had within him the priceless Spark of Eternity!

Especially was the Unseen Coach interested that evening in one fine athlete, the team's floor leader, who had literally "played his heart out" for the team and was now tiring rapidly.

While most of the crowd cheered the boy's fine "scrimmage" action on the floor, the Great Coach was viewing the eternal dimensions of the athlete's soul: love of God and parents, loyalty, dedication, singleness of purpose, faith. He was now ready to share in Life's Big Game--to join the mighty "cloud of witnesses" who cheer to victory the unending generations.

So, the Great Coach of the Ages "called" the valiant but weary athlete to the eternal sidelines, placed His arms around the youth's shoulders and said: "You've played a great game, son. You deserve to rest now."

We could not see all this, and more, last Friday evening! We still can't! Because "now we see through a glass darkly"--but someday our eyes, too, will be fully opened.

Then we shall see the Great Coach face to face--and wonder why we wondered!

Head High School Edition

Dedicated to the students of Head High School and especially to DANIEL LEWIS's teammates
on the basketball squad.

"Now we see through a glass darkly." So wrote the great Apostle of the First Christian century. This means that even 20-20 vision is still very limited vision.

Last Friday evening during the Head-High Park High School basketball game at Bear Park, everyone could see the ten players on the floor, the two referees, the cheer leaders, the two squads and their coaches on their respective benches, and the shouting crowd of spectators cheering their teams to victory!

But hardly anyone was aware of the unseen but very real presence standing nearby in the "dim unknown keeping watch over His own." The Great Coach of the game of life was watching very closely last Friday evening.

More concerned about the big game of life than the brief "scoreboard" at hand, this short inning of time within eternity's endless span, the Great Coach of the Ages followed with special interest every move of His invaluable players.
For each had within him the priceless spark of eternity!

Especially was the Unseen Coach interested that evening in one line athlete, the team's floor leader, who had literally "played his heart out" for the team and was now tiring rapidly.

While most of the crowd cheered the boy's fine "scoreboard" action on the floor, the Great Coach was viewing the eternal dimensions of the athlete's soul: love of God and parents, loyalty, dedication, simplicity of purpose, faith. He was now ready to share in life's big game--to join the mighty "cloud of witnesses" who cheer to victory the upcoming generations.

So, the Great Coach of the Ages "called" the valiant but weary athlete to the eternal sidelines, placed His arms around the youth's shoulders and said:
"You've played a great game, son. You deserve to rest now."

We could not see all this, and more, last Friday evening! We still can't!
Because "now we see through a glass darkly"--but someday our eyes, too, will be fully opened.

Then we shall see the Great Coach face to face--and wonder why we wondered!

--A. Vincent Carr

DARREL WILLARD LEYDE, 18 year old Mead High School senior, who passed away suddenly while playing basketball at Deer Park last Friday, had won the respect and admiration of hundreds of his fellow students as well as the undivided loyalty of his teammates who looked to him as their "floor leader."

No tragedy in the writer's remembrance has so shocked the entire school and church community as the sudden death of this devoted athlete.

Scores of parents and teenagers telephoned Mrs. Carr and me at our home to express their concern and sympathy for the bereaved family, our very dear next door neighbors.

MEMORIAL SERVICES were held at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, in the Hazen and Jaeger Funeral Home, with Dr. A. Vincent Carr officiating.

Mr. Thomas Tavener, Minister of Music at the Whitworth Community Presbyterian Church, beautifully sang two hymns of comfort and assurance: "Be Still My Soul" and "Rock of Ages."

Five of Darrel's fellow teammates, and one very close friend, served as pallbearers. There were also twenty-one honorary pallbearers, including five Shadle Park High School students, and thirty additional members of the Lettermen's Club who participated as a group.

All Wednesday afternoon classes were dismissed and approximately 300 Mead students registered for special transportation to attend the services.

More than 600 people taxed the funeral home's facilities. Both Chapels were crowded to capacity and chairs were placed in every other available room. Many had to stand in the halls throughout the entire service. The Home's public address system made the services audible to all, however.

Interment was at Mt. Greenwood Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Leyde, their two sons, Vernon and Ronald, and their daughter, Colleen, have asked that I express their heartfelt appreciation to all the Mead High School students, the faculty, and the administration, for their unlimited cooperation and encouragement; to the Board of Deacons and the members of the Whitworth Community Church for their prayers and their many expressions of Christian affection: the preparation of hot meals for the family and many other helpful acts during these trying days; and to all the kind folk of our community for their visits, food, flowers, and prayers.

The parents of Darrel Leyde expressed it this way:

"The burden of this bereavement would have been unbearable were it not for the prayers, encouragement, and help of such wonderful friends."

Because of the spontaneous show of affection on the part of Darrel's many school friends, your editor thought it fitting to make this week's 'Chimes' a "Mead High School Edition," dedicated to the students of Mead High School, and especially to Darrel Leyde's teammates on the basketball squad.

(425 additional copies of this week's 'Chimes' were delivered to Mead High School, in care of Mr. Hobart Jenkins, principal.)

Because of the spontaneous show of affection on the part of Darrel's many school friends, your editor thought it fitting to make this week's "Whitworth Community Church Edition" dedicated to the students of Mead High School, and especially to Darrel Levey's teammates on the basketball squad.

(125 additional copies of this week's "Chimes" were delivered to Mead High School, in care of Mr. Robert Levinger, Principal.)

DARREL WILLARD LEVEY, 18 year old Mead High School senior, who passed away suddenly while playing basketball at their Park last Friday, had won the respect and admiration of hundreds of his fellow students as well as the undivided loyalty of his teammates who looked to him as their "floor leader."

No tragedy in the writer's remembrance has so shocked the entire school and church community as the sudden death of this devoted athlete.

Scores of parents and teenagers telephoned Mrs. Carr and met at our home to express their concern and sympathy for the bereaved family, our very best next door neighbors.

MEMORIAL SERVICES were held at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, in the Mason and Tanager Funeral Home, with Dr. A. Vincent Carr officiating.

Mr. Thomas Javner, Minister of Music at the Whitworth Community Presbyterian Church, beautifully sang two hymns of comfort and assurance: "He Still My Soul" and "Rock of Ages."

Five of Darrel's fellow teammates, and one very close friend, served as pallbearers. There were also twenty-one honorary pallbearers, including five Shadle Park High School students, and thirty additional members of the latter men's Club who participated as a group.

All Wednesday afternoon classes were dismissed and approximately 300 Mead students registered for special transportation to attend the services.

More than 600 people taxed the funeral home's facilities. Both Chapels were crowded to capacity and chairs were placed in every other available room. Many had the 1963 school year is just about through. I wish you the best of luck in the future years. Good luck in your senior year night

I do not think I will ever fight the New Years party at Diana's place. Will you?

Dear Lynda!
It's been swell knowing these past years just wait until "next year wheels."
to be back in Bloom.
Good Luck
you

Lynda,
You haven't been in any of my classes except the home room, but maybe next year.

Much luck and happened in the morning hard to come -
Be good and have
of you this summer

I hope we remain friends forever. I'll never forget you. Have lots of fun next year and don't get in too much trouble.

Lynda, It has been nice having you in shorthand & history
this year. (MAN, WHAT CLASSES!) Good Luck Always to a real nice girl

Lyn.
I don't know why, but it's been fun goofing around with you. It seems that as each year goes by, I get to know you better and we seem to have more fun together.
Another year has gone by, I hope you realize that, and I've really enjoyed it. I hope that we get stationed together when we join the Navy. Lots of huck and love. (I'll sign my pet name)

My hand beauty, we are going to have this summer. Well, well!
I am a real sweet kid and I like you real well. Just think well be mostly seniors next year (so you'll have to grow up with) Just kidding

Good luck
today and always. Love,

Hi Lyn
I won't say good luck because that's for people I don't know, and boy do I know you.
Can you believe that we'll be seniors next year.
Well so long for now
over and out. Patti
